Short biography

Melinda has joined the assurance practice of PwC Hungary in 1997 in the field of financial audits. In 2000 she has moved to the San Jose, CA office of PwC, where she gained further experience in auditing US listed companies and start up companies. In 2003 she returned to the PwC office in Hungary and worked there until 2006 as audit manager. Melinda started her carrier in Magyar Telekom in 2007 as compliance director and managed succesfully the adjustment of the compliance control environment within Magyar Telekom Group to the satisfaction of both the management and the Audit Committee of Magyar Telekom, as well as of the Department of Justice of the USA. During the last 3 years she managed different departments within the CFO area including accounting, tax, treasury and working capital management. Currently she is heading the directorate of accounting and tax.

She holds a degree in Master of Business Administration from the University of Economic Sciences in Budapest.

She lives in Budapest. In her free time she reads history novels, practises yoga, and spends time with her friends and family.
