

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Klaus M. Steinmaurer, MBA

Dr. Klaus-Maria Steinmaurer MBA, born in Austria, is Vice President for International Regulatory Affairs at Deutsche Telekom Group in Bonn. He is responsible for developing and implementing Deutsche Telekom's public and regulatory affairs strategy vis-a-vis Governments, National Regulatory Authorities, the European Commission and other stakeholders.

One of his key tasks is to advise Deutsche Telekom's European subsidiaries and coordinate their regulatory and government affairs activities.

Dr. Steinmaurer studied law at the University of Vienna and business process management at the University of Economics also in Vienna.

For over 20 years he works in the Telecommunication Industry. Before he joined DT Group in Bonn he held various management functions at T-Mobile Austria, where he amongst others headed the legal department and was responsible for compliance as well as public and regulatory affairs and published various articles on these topics in the past years.

Besides that he is lecturer at the University of Vienna regarding International Telecommunication Law.